General provisions

- 2) ING Bank Śląski S.A., hereinafter referred to as 'ING Bank', charges fees and commissions for banking activities under the Table of Fees and Commissions of ING Bank Śląski Spółka Akcyjna for residents and non-residents being legal entities and entities not holding legal capacity, hereinafter referred to as 'Table of Fees and Commissions'.
- 3) Commissions and fees for operations in foreign currency trade, carried out by residents and non-residents, are charged in PLN under following principles:
  - a) From a PLN account – the PLN equivalent of an FX commission is determined using the average NBP exchange rate, as applicable at the transaction processing date and published in the first Foreign Exchange Rate Table of ING Bank on a given day,
  - b) From a FX account – fees and commissions are collected from the FX account by debiting this account with the equivalent of these charges determined using the average NBP exchange rates, as applicable at the transaction processing date and published in the first Foreign Exchange Rate Table of ING Bank on a given day,
  - c) In FX cash at the counter – foreign currency is purchased at the bid rate based on the Foreign Exchange Rate Table of ING Bank effective on a given day,
  - d) In PLN cash at the counter – determined in the same way as in sub-item a. pursuant to the General terms and conditions of FX spot transactions conclusion with corporate clients at ING Bank in domestic and cross-border settlements of transactions involving ING Bank,
  - e) All consequences of delays or exchange rate changes following deficient or incorrect orders are borne by the Client.
- 4) Fees and commissions for granting and handling credit facilities and credit product lines:
  - a) granted and utilised in PLN are charged in PLN or may be charged in other convertible currency under individual arrangements with the Client,
  - b) granted and/or utilised in convertible currencies are charged in currencies in which the credit facility is used and/or may be charged in PLN or other convertible currencies under individual arrangements with the Client.
- 5) Fees and commissions are charged regardless of costs of protesting bill of exchange, stamp duties, civil law tax, VAT and other fees foreseen by the law.
- 6) The enclosure with the Table of Fees and Commissions includes a list of transactions subject to tax on civil law transactions following the rules set out in the Ordinance of the ING Bank President.
- 7) The Bank has the right to replace the Table of Fees and Commissions with new one or to amend the individual parts of the Table in the following events: due to changes to laws concerning the activity of the Bank, the issue by the relevant regulatory bodies of recommendations or other documents (or amendments thereto) addressed to the banking market entities, changes in the Bank's product offer, changes to the electronic banking system functioning, changes to the provision of services including progressing electronisation of terms and conditions of cooperation with clients as well as market changes affecting the Bank's activity or the emergence of a need to adjust the services rendered to the conditions connected with the technological progress.
- 8) ING Bank will advise Clients of the changes hereto:
  - a) by sending information in electronic form, or
  - b) by providing information in ING Bank Branches and publishing it on the Bank websites.
