

We change the Table of Fees and Commissions

On September 1, 2025, we amend the "Table of Fees and Commissions of ING Bank Śląski Spółka Akcyjna" (hereinafter: TOiP).

What we change

- We introduce BLIK transfer to telephone, it will be payable as every domestic transfer, (we will inform you about the date of providing the service in a separate message)
- We are changing the rules on the fee for maintaining a high balance on accounts. We will charge the fee if the difference between the sum of balances as at the last day of the year and the average sum of balances in the period from January to November is equal to or higher than PLN 2 million.
- We increase the monthly fee for maintaining an automatic overnight deposit account to PLN 500
- We increase the fees for returning the terminal and terminating the contract to PLN 100,
- We increase the one-time fee for examining the application for opening a housing escrow account, if the contract signing does not take place up to PLN 3,500,
- We increase part of the fees for handling guarantees, collection, letters of credit and discount products, and we change the rules for handling claims under guarantees and handling instructions in express mode

Acceptance of changes

If you agree to these changes, you do not have to do anything.

However, if you do not agree to the changes by August 31, 2025, you can submit a statement of non-acceptance of the changes.

In the case of submitting a statement, the relevant provisions of the regulations apply.

If you do not accept these changes and terminate the agreement, please remember to settle your obligations at our bank.

You can submit a statement via e-banking.

With best regards
ING Bank Śląski team

