General Provisions

1. ING Bank Śląski S.A., hereinafter referred to as "ING Bank", charges fees and commissions for banking activities under the Table of Fees and Commissions of ING Bank Śląski Spółka Akcyjna for residents and non-residents being legal entities and entities not holding legal capacity, hereinafter referred to as "Table of Fees and Commissions" or "TFC".
2. ING Bank's commissions and fees for foreign currency deposits and/or withdrawals made by residents and non-residents are charged in PLN according to the following rules:
 - 1) from a PLN account – the PLN equivalent of a foreign currency commission is determined using the average NBP exchange rate, as applicable at the transaction processing date and published in the first Foreign Exchange Rate Table of ING Bank on a given day,
 - 2) from a foreign currency account – fees and commissions are charged from the foreign currency account by debiting this account with the equivalent of these charges determined using the average NBP exchange rates, as applicable at the transaction processing date and published in the first Foreign Exchange Rate Table of ING Bank on a given day.
3. Fees and commissions for granting and handling credit facilities and credit product lines (Multi-product Agreement):
 - 1) granted and utilised in PLN are charged in PLN or may be charged in other convertible currency under individual arrangements with the Client,
 - 2) granted and/or utilised in convertible currencies are charged in currencies in which the credit facility is used and/or may be charged in PLN or other convertible currencies under individual arrangements with the Client.
4. Fees and commissions are charged regardless of costs of protesting bill of exchange, stamp duties, civil law tax, VAT and other fees foreseen by the law.
5. The Bank may introduce a new TFC (Table of Fees and Commissions) in place of the TFC or amend individual provisions of the TFC on terms specified in the Regulations
6. ING Bank will advise Clients of the changes hereto by sending information in electronic form, or by providing information in ING Bank Branches and publishing it on the Bank website
7. The Table of Fees and Commissions consists of two parts:
 - 1) Table of Fees and Commissions Part IA: for Companies and local governments
 - 2) Table of Fees and Commission Part IB: for entrepreneurs in terms of companies and other entities,
 - 3) Table of Fees and Commissions Part II: for Corporations/Wholesale Banking.
8. Changes in one Part of this Table of Fees and Commissions shall not affect the validity of the remaining Parts and can be made independently of each other. ING Bank Śląski S.A. will inform those clients who are affected by amendments to this Table of Fees and Commissions.

Rules for Part IB:

1. This part IB of the Table of Fees and Commissions determines the amount of fees and commissions charged by ING Bank Śląski S.A. for activities related to making available products and services dedicated to the companies and other entities in accordance with the segmentation adopted at the Bank and applies to contracts concluded with these entities before 20 June 2022. The term "Bank" as used in the Table of Fees and Commissions shall be understood as ING Bank Śląski S.A.
2. The products and services offered by the bank and indicated in Part IB of the Table of Fees and Commissions are designated by their respective trade names. The Bank may change a trade name, including as a result of a change in the client segment in accordance with the segmentation principle adopted by the Bank. A change of trade name during the term of the agreement under which the bank offers a product or service shall not constitute an amendment to that agreement.
3. The Bank's organisational units charge fees and commissions for services rendered in accordance with the rules and in the amounts specified in this Table of Fees and Commissions
4. The fees and commissions are charged regardless of other fees provided by law, e.g. the cost of protest of bill of exchange, stamp duties.
5. Fees and commissions are charged in PLN. Amounts of fees and commissions charged shall be rounded up to the nearest grosz, according to generally applicable rules.
6. The Bank does not charge any monthly fees for bank account maintenance or use of debit cards if there have been no turnovers in the account for at least 6 months and there is a debit balance in the account.
7. For the purpose of calculating the PLN equivalent of a fee/commission expressed in a foreign currency, the following rules apply:
 - 1) in the case of collecting or paying commission from an account maintained in PLN – the average NBP exchange rate applicable on the date of the operation, published in the first Foreign Exchange Rate Table of ING Bank Śląski on a given day shall be applied,
 - 2) in the case of collecting or paying commission from an account maintained in a foreign currency – the average NBP exchange rate applicable on the date of the operation, published in the first Foreign Exchange Rate Table of ING Bank Śląski on a given day shall be applied,
 - 3) in the case of instructions / orders containing omissions or errors, the consequences of delays and exchange rate changes shall be borne by the Client.

8. Fees and commissions are calculated and charged: in the billing cycle established by the Bank, i.e.: for banking activities performed in the period from the first to the last day of each month, the account will be debited on the last day of the given month, unless other rules for charging are indicated directly next to the title of the fee or commission, or in accordance with the agreement concluded, or after the performance of the service or on the day of the instruction.
9. The active use requirement is understood as at least one transfer to the Social Insurance Institution (ZUS) or to the Tax Office (US) made by the Account Holder in any given calendar month via the Direct Account for Business, Direct Account, Profit Account or PROFIT+ Account or as the total inflow of funds to the Direct Account for Business, Direct Account, Profit Account or PROFIT+ Account amounting to at least PLN 2,000 in any given calendar month, received via an external transfer (from another bank), an internal transfer (except for transfers between the company's own accounts), cash deposit (own funds) or cash deposit made by third parties.
10. Fee for the Business Direct Account, Direct Account, Profit Account, PROFIT+ Account and for execution of the following transfers submitted through the internet banking system:
- 1) domestic transfer in PLN (except Express ELIXIR and SORBNET),
 - 2) FX transfers outside Poland – transfers in EUR to accounts with other banks outside of Poland within the Single Euro Payments Area (SEPA),
 - 3) basic fee for a transfer as part of the fee for the TARGET transfer (FX transfer order in EUR) – the European transfer (except for a fee for transfers under the urgent procedure (TODAY)),
 - 4) SEPA credit transfers (FX transfer orders in EUR – the European transfer),
- is not charged if the active use requirement, as specified in pt. 9, was not met in the preceding month.
11. If the active use requirement is not met, the aforementioned fees are charged.
12. In the case of closing a settlement account, the monthly fee for maintaining the settlement account and the monthly fee for the payment card for the account (debit card) shall be subject to pro-rata settlement for the relevant settlement cycle. Where only a payment card with the account (the debit card) is closed, the monthly fee for the payment card with the account (the debit card) is settled on a pro-rata basis in a given settlement cycle. The principle of pro-rating the settlement account maintenance fee does not apply to the Direct Account for Business.
13. Bank statement on request – a bank statement issued at the Client's request at the counter or sent at the mailing address on the basis of the Client's order placed via the Contact Centre. A bank statement on request may only be prepared as:
- 1) the current bank statement which is made for the period from the last bank statement date to the current date,
 - 2) the past bank statement which is made for any ended bank statement period.
14. A foreign currency transfer should be understood as a transfer expressed:
- 1) in currencies specified in the Exchange Rate Table of ING Bank for non-cash transactions,
 - 2) in Polish zloty addressed to payment service providers that do not operate in the Republic of Poland.
15. A European transfer, including SEPA, should be understood as a transfer denominated in EUR and directed to a bank account held in another bank in Poland or in another bank outside Poland in the Single Euro Payments Area (SEPA), submitted via the Internet banking system, which meets the following conditions:
- 1) the beneficiary's bank account number is given in the IBAN format,
 - 2) the BIC of the beneficiary's bank is correct,
 - 3) no intermediary bank is indicated,
 - 4) the SHA cost option is marked,
 - 5) the execution mode indicated in the payment instruction is standard.
16. An urgent European transfer (TARGET) shall mean a European transfer with the urgent execution mode indicated in the payment instruction.
17. A foreign currency transfer order (in a foreign currency and in PLN addressed to a bank outside Poland) a foreign currency transfer executed in a non-automatic manner should be understood as a transfer in which:
- 1) the beneficiary's bank account number is not given in the IBAN format (applies to countries for which the bank account number is in the IBAN format), or
 - 2) the BIC of the beneficiary's bank is incorrect, or
 - 3) an intermediary bank was indicated without a proper BIC.
