General provisions

- 1) ING Bank Śląski S.A., hereinafter referred to as 'ING Bank', charges fees and commissions for banking activities under the Table of Fees and Commissions of ING Bank Śląski Spółka Akcyjna for residents and non-residents being legal entities and entities not holding legal capacity, hereinafter referred to as 'Table of Fees and Commissions' or 'TFC'
- 2) ING Bank's commissions and fees for foreign currency deposits and/or withdrawals made by residents and non-residents are charged in PLN according to the following rules:
 - a) from a PLN account – the PLN equivalent of a FX commission is determined using the average NBP exchange rate, as applicable at the transaction processing date and published in the first Foreign Exchange Rate Table of ING Bank on a given day
 - b) from a FX account – fees and commissions are collected from the FX account by debiting this account with the equivalent of these charges determined using the average NBP exchange rates, as applicable at the transaction processing date and published in the first Foreign Exchange Rate Table of ING Bank on a given day
- 3) Fees and commissions for granting and handling credit facilities and credit product lines:
 - a) granted and utilised in PLN are charged in PLN or may be charged in other convertible currency under individual arrangements with the Client
 - b) granted and/or utilised in convertible currencies are charged in currencies in which the credit facility is used and/or may be charged in PLN or other convertible currencies under individual arrangements with the Client
- 4) Fees and commissions are charged regardless of costs of protesting bill of exchange, stamp duties, civil law tax, VAT and other fees foreseen by the law
- 5) The fees for maintaining balance on bank accounts calculated based on aggregate balance will be charged from single bank account, selected by ING Bank. ING Bank will select bank account to have fees charged from PLN current accounts in the first place
- 6) The average monthly balance with reference to maintaining the balance on bank accounts fee is calculated based on account balance starting from the last working day of previous month to the day preceding the last working day of the month for which the fee is to be calculated
- 7) In order to determine underlying amount of fee for maintaining balance on bank accounts only positive account's balance is taken into consideration. To calculate average monthly balance in distinct currencies ING Bank can include also negative account balance
- 8) The Bank may introduce a new TOiP (Table of Fees and Commissions) in place of the TOiP or amend individual provisions of the TOiP on terms specified in the Regulations
- 9) ING Bank will advise Clients of the changes hereto by sending information in electronic form, or by providing information in ING Bank Branches and publishing it on the Bank website
- 10) The TOiP consists of two parts:
 - a) Table of Fees and Commissions Part I: for Companies and Local Governments
 - b) Table of Fees and Commission Part II: for Corporations/Wholesale Banking
- 11) Changes in one Part of this Table of Fees and Commissions shall not affect the validity of the remaining Parts and can be made independently of each other. ING Bank Śląski S.A. will inform those customers who are affected by amendments to this TOiP
